Seal of Biliteracy

Sarah Campbell is an ESL educator at Croton Harmon for grades 5-12. Prior to Croton, Sarah taught in various educational settings; she has been a Spanish Instructor at the college level, she ran an ESL newcomer program at the middle school level, and taught and coordinated ESL at a high school in Queens. She is currently pursuing a doctorate degree in Language, Literacy, and Culture Education. During the Seal of Biliteracy workshop, Sarah will present about the NY State Seal of Biliteracy, to demystify the process and assist in implementation. She will present the process and procedures for implementation, share student portfolios and presentations, as well as give work time with support for you to consider implementation within your district.

The purposes for instituting the Seal of Biliteracy and the Pathways to Biliteracy Awards are numerous:

- To encourage students to study languages
- To certify attainment of biliteracy skills
- To recognize the value of language diversity
- To provide employers with a method of identifying people with language and biliteracy skills
- To provide universities with a method to recognize and give credit to applicants for attainment of high level skills in multiple languages
- To prepare students with 21st century skills that will benefit them in the labor market and the global society
- To strengthen intergroup relationships and honor the multiple cultures and languages in a community.
